PRAISE FROM M'DOUALL.

MICHILIMACKINAC, 22nd June, 1815.

Garrison Orders.

Lieutenant-Colonel McDouall avails himself of an early opportunity to offer to Captain Bulger, the tribute of praise so justly his due, for his judicious, manly and energetic conduct, while commanding at Fort McKay, on the Upper Mississippi. Unawed by that opposition, so industriously exerted to counteract his measures, he has steadily and successfully persevered in the faithful discharge of his duty, under circumstances peculiarly trying and difficult. Merit like this must, in the end, attain reward and distinction, while its opposers, and abettors of intrigue, never fail to reap the bitter fruit of their labours, and to lower themselves in the estimation of every man, whose praise is worthy the having. To those officers, who, unseduced by bad example, undeviatingly supported their Commanding Officer, remote as he was from assistance, and environed as he was with difficulties, the Commandant returns his best thanks, particularly to Captain Anderson, of whom Captain Bulger speaks in the highest terms, for his uniform zeal and unceasing exertion.

Certified.

RT. McDouall, Lieut. Col.

M'DOUALL TO SIR F. P. ROBINSON.

Drummond Island, 24th September, 1815.

SIR,—With regard to the charges transmitted to Your Excellency through Mr. Baker, I have not the smallest doubt, but they are purposely exhibited in order to give some colour and pretext for the tragedy about to be enacted on the Mississippi, to shut our eyes to that transaction, and to divert the Government from the enquiry, of how it agrees with the 9th Article of the treaty of Ghent. It appears to me that this outcry is precisely made upon
