

Question.—Who did he say killed the deceased Champagney and wounded him — Antoine Dubois?

Answer.—He said it was the prisoner Chunksah.

Question.—Were you present when the Corbeau François, Chief of the Gens de la Feuille Tiré, delivered up the prisoner to Robert Dickson, Esqr?

Answer.—Yes.

Third Evidence.—The Corbeau François Chief of the Gens de la Feuille Tiré being called on, was asked by the court through the Interpreter Renville.

Question.—Is the prisoner Chunksah the man that killed the two Frenchmen?

Answer.—Yes it is.

Defence.—The court then addressed the prisoner Chunksah.

Question.—Are you the man that killed Louis Champagney and Antoine Dubois?

Answer.—It was not me, it was my brother.

Question.—Why did you—if not guilty—run away?

Answer.—I did not run away.

Question.—Did you not kill your uncle last year?

Answer.—My father is living; it was not me.

Opinion and Sentence.

The Court, having satisfied themselves that the prisoner Chunksah is the man who murdered Dubois and Champagney, on or about the 8th December last, are of opinion that he ought immediately to suffer death by being shot.
