

Maple, Cherry, Birch, Lynn, Bass, Cotton, Butternut, Elm, Ash and Pine Timber. Indeed, it abounds with all kinds of wood of the best quality, and for Cabinet and other work, except the Black Walnut and Chestnut; which is very scarce, if to be found at all, in the country. The hydraulic privileges are very valuable; there are some of the finest mill sites on several streams emptying into Green Bay, that I have ever seen, both as it regards economy in constructing the necessary improvements, and the ease with which they can be approached from the surrounding country. The Seasons are warm enough for all kinds of Agricultural purposes, and the climate is remarkably healthy.

Green Bay is a handsome sheet of water, and is, generally, very deep—it is ninety miles in length and from five to twenty five in depth. It may be properly called an estuary, for Fox River, which it receives at its head, or southwestern extremity, and then runs a course northeastwardly to Lake Michigan, which it enters about one hundred and twenty miles south of Mackinac, and about two hundred and fifty miles nearly north from Chicago. This bay is navigable for steamboats and schooners of any tonnage that can be brought on the Lakes, to the entrance of Fox River, and up this river about six miles. There are a number of valuable Islands on the Bay, and it abounds in harbors equal to any between this place and Buffalo, in ease of access and safe anchorage. The channel is wide and strongly marked, until near the mouth of Fox River, where it becomes somewhat crooked, but can always be found without difficulty or the least danger.

“Green Bay settlement,” in the township of Green Bay, is the seat of Justice for Brown county; and is situated immediately at the head of the Bay, in  $44^{\circ} 40^m$  of N. latitude, and  $87^{\circ}$  of W. longitude. It embraces a tract of country, commencing at a point about half a mile above the entrance of Fox River, and extends up and along the river on both sides, six miles, running back on each side, three miles, so as to form a square containing a township or twenty three thousand and forty acres of land. This tract has been con-
