

tions that may be made to us under pretext of payments of debts between the English and the French, we shall manifest no complaisance, and we shall punish severely all who may infringe his Majesty's orders.

We have the honor to be with very profound respect, Monseigneur, Your very humble and very obedient Servants

BEAUHARNOIS

HOCQUART.¹

[Enclosure with the preceding document. Source the same, but fol. 47.]

The following effects were also embarked in the said Canoes for the purchase of Provisions in the upper Country for the said party:

108 ells of cloth in 6 pieces

124 $\frac{1}{6}$ ells of molleton²

4 dozen Morlaix³ shirts for men

4 dozen ditto for women

2 dozen ditto for boys

400 Pounds of fine powder

8 barrels for the powder

600 Pounds of ball

400 Pounds of lead

20 double Sacks containing 6 and $\frac{2}{3}$ ells.

Made out at Montreal on the Thirtieth June one thousand seven Hundred and twenty eight. Signed: Roebert. And lower down: Examined, daigremont.

A True Copy

HOCQUART.

QUEBEC, October 25th, 1729.

¹ Gilles Hocquart was intendant of Canada from Oct. 1, 1728 to Sept. 1, 1748. During his long term of office he acquitted himself with unusual ability, managed Canadian finances with integrity, and attempted to develop the resources of the colony.—Ed.

² A kind of treble-milled cotton cloth.—Ed.

³ Morlaix is a Breton town, near the English Channel, noted for its linen manufacture.—Ed.