are always at War with the Chipways; and if the Ind^{ns} now here (among whom are some other Nat^s as they come here in behalf of 8 Nat^s to the westward who assure us of their Friendship) leave this satisfied, it may be of infinite Service w^{ch} I intend to represent to Gen. Gage, and I believe you will approve of making them handsome Presents as an Encouragement for their good Behaviour, and the only Means of chastising those villainous Nations who are the Occasion of this unhappy Event.

[Letter from Ethrington to Langlade. Original MS. in Wisconsin Historical Library.]

MONTREAL 15th August 1763.

SIR—I have just time to thank you for all your favors and to tell you that I have acquainted the General of your good Behavior who will write you himself by the savages who have been very well received.

for further particulars I refer you to the Generals Letter my Compliments to M^r. Farly⁵⁴ and all your Family and am Sir your most obedient Humble Servant

GEO: ETHRINGTON.
