²⁶ A well-known family of Detroit, whose ancestor came there in 1709. At what time this person was appointed justice of the peace at Mackinac does not appear.—Ed.

²⁷ See a reference to this family in Wis. Hist. Colls., xiv, p. 20.—Ed.

²⁸ Capt. Edward Charleton was captain in the 5th infantry of the British army in 1783. Apparently he was commandant at Fort Michilimackinac from 1790-92. In 1794 he was promoted to a majority, and three years later retired on half-pay, dying at his English home in 1839.

Benjamin Roche, of the same regiment, entered the army in 1782,
