

SEC. 7. The treasurer shall take charge of the funds of the Society and pay them out on the order of the executive committee.

SEC. 8. The executive committee shall have charge of the affairs of the Society and shall make report of their operations, and of the condition of the Society at each annual meeting.

SEC. 9. The Society shall at each annual meeting appoint and notify some suitable person to deliver an address at the next succeeding annual meeting.

SEC. 10. The several officers of this Society shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors are duly elected.

SEC. 11. Any person may become a member of this Society by signing the constitution or authorizing the secretary to do so.

SEC. 12. There shall be an annual meeting of the Society held at the seat of government, on the Wednesday next succeeding the commencement of the annual session of the legislature.

SEC. 13. The Society may make such by-laws for its own government as shall be deemed proper and necessary, and at any annual meeting a majority of the members present shall have power to revise and amend the same.

SEC. 14. This constitution may be altered or amended at any annual meeting of the society on the vote of two thirds of the members present.

By-Laws

No. 1. All original communications, intended to be considered as the transactions of this Society shall be read before it at its annual meeting.

No. 2. A standing committee of reference shall be appointed by the Chair, at the annual meetings of the Society, to whom all communications shall be referred, unless otherwise ordered, and whose duty it shall be to examine and report to the Society what papers and parts of papers, in their opinion ought to be published as the transactions of the Society, which report shall be considered by the Society and approved, modified or rejected as may be deemed proper.

No. 3. The President of the Society or in his absence the presiding officer shall appoint at each anniversary meeting a Committee of three members to select some proper person to deliver the next annual address, and they shall continue to act till such appointment shall be effected.