

Meeting of January 12, 1850

At a special meeting of the Wisconsin Historical Society held at the Library Rooms of the Capitol at Madison, on the evening of the 12th of Jan. 1850, Gov. Dewey, Pres., took the chair and called for a statement of the object of the Meeting.

Gen. W<sup>m</sup>. R. Smith replied that being unable to procure a place for the delivery of the annual discourse on the day of the Annual Meeting of the Society, some measures must be taken to secure a place on some other day.

Whereupon Rev. A. Bronson moved, seconded by H. C. Hobart, Esq., that a committee of three be appointed as a Committee of Arrangement.

H. C. Hobart, of Sheboygan, Mr. Keuhn of Manitowoc, and M. M. Cothren of Iowa, were appointed said Committee.

The Society adjourned to meet again at the same place on Monday Evening the 14th inst.

C. LORD, Rec. Sec'y.

MONDAY EVENING, Jan. 14, 1850.

The Society met according to adjournment, the Pres, Gov. Dewey, in the Chair.

The committee of arrangements to procure a place for the Annual Discourse reported that the Hall of the Assembly had been secured for Tuesday the 15th inst. at 2 o'clock.

The report was adopted.

The Society directed their Secretary to invite the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Board of Regents to be present at the Annual Discourse tomorrow.

A. H. Smith, A. D. Smith, & J. Y. Smith, were chosen a committee to wait upon the Society tomorrow in the Hall in a body to listen to the Discourse. The Society then adjourned.
