

CONNOR SPORT COURT™
Press Release

Connor Sport Court's NCAA® Final Four® Court On Display
At NASA's Space Center March 24

Houston, Texas (PRWeb) March 16, 2011—The National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center Visitor Center will be host to the Final Four Floor Tour, featuring the 2011 playing surface of the Men's NCAA Final Four Championship.

The truck carrying the Final Four surface will be at the Visitor Center from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Thursday, March 24. The public is invited to come and see the truck and sign the truck banner that will be travelling to Reliant Stadium.

The court will make its way from Salt Lake City where the manufacturer of the playing surface, Connor Sport Court International, is headquartered. Stops honoring NCAA colleges and teams will be made along the way.

The playing court started its journey to fame from Connor Sports Flooring's manufacturing plant in Amasa, Michigan. It then travelled to Idaho Falls where Connor's finishing partner—United Services —put the final touches on the surface, including logos, color striping and the urethane top surface.

The court, a QuickLock™ portable system, was constructed by Connor especially for the NCAA Final Four. It is built from Northern Hardwood Maple in strict accordance with NCAA specifications. Connor Sport Court is a member of the Maple Flooring Manufacturers Association (MFMA) and adheres to the stringent manufacturing guidelines of that organization.

About Connor Sport Court International

More athletic events are played on Connor Sport Court surfaces than on any other sports flooring in the world. Founded in 1872, Connor Sports Flooring has established itself as the standard for professional and collegiate sports. Hardwood used in the courts is from a renewable resource, with the U.S. growing six times more hardwood than is harvested each year. Sport Court® is a registered trade mark of Connor Sport Court International. Since 1974, it has identified the original and authentic modular sport surface, continuously improved and patented to provide the highest levels of quality and performance. Connor Sport Court is proud to be the only sports surfacing company in the world that is independently audited and verified as "Zero Waste" and fully ISO 9001:2008 and ISO 14001:2004 certified.
