

Day Sixteen: Abiding – Walking in Freedom

Jesus stood up and said to her, woman where are they? “Has no one condemned you?” She said, “no one Lord.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more” John 8:10–11.

Many of us walk around still feeling condemnation from our past . We are holding ourself back from our full potential that God has to offer us. Sometimes friends, and even our family members, will try to condemn us if they have not fully forgiven us.

The Bible says there is no condemnation in those who believe in Christ Jesus. We need to remember when we come to Jesus with repentant hearts there is no condemnation, and we are free from all of our sins. Jesus has freed you from all condemnation by the power of His blood, and what He did for us on the cross.

Walk in that freedom today! Rejoice in the fact we serve a living God who sent His only Son to die for us so we can walk in freedom from our pass failures.

Be free today and abide in His forgiveness, grace, and love.

“Remember who you are. Don’t compromise for anyone, for any reason. You are a child of the Almighty God. Live that truth.”
