

Mid-Atlantic Christian University Announcement for Open Faculty Position

Adjunct Faculty – Human Resource Management

Position Description:

An Adjunct Faculty member teaches on a periodic basis, dependent upon the needs of the institution for any given semester. MACU is currently looking for adjunct faculty who can teach in the area of human resource management beginning August 2019. Preference will be given to faculty who can teach on-campus in Elizabeth City but teaching online is an option.

Degree Requirements:

Ideal: Doctorate degree in business administration with a strong emphasis in human resource management, teaching and/or professional experience.

Minimum: Masters degree in human resource management, minimal teaching and/or professional experience. (A masters degree in any discipline with an additional 18 graduate hours in human resource management is acceptable.)

Responsibilities:

The candidate must possess a mature Christian faith and be able to demonstrate teaching competence, scholarly ability and be knowledgeable in his or her discipline. The applicant must be respectful to the Stone-Campbell faith tradition, and in full agreement with the school's doctrinal statement. One must be able to contribute to the well being and advancement of an academic Christian community by integrating scholarship with the community's faith tradition. The candidate must be a person of virtuous character and lifestyle who is willing to invest himself or herself in the holistic development of his or her students.

Application Process:

Send (1) a letter of application, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) unofficial copies of all graduate transcripts, (4) a list of four references (three professional and one spiritual) whom the university may contact, and (5) a statement of teaching philosophy that includes how the applicant has integrated or intends to integrate a Christian Theistic Worldview in the teaching-learning process. All materials may be sent to Dr. Kevin W. Larsen, VP Academic Affairs, Mid-Atlantic Christian University, 715 N. Poindexter Street, Elizabeth City, NC 27909. Materials may also be sent via email: kevin.larsen@macuniversity.edu.

Applications without each of the five aforementioned components will not be reviewed. The application process remains open until the positions are filled. To learn more about Mid-Atlantic Christian University, visit the web site at www.macuniversity.edu.

Degrees from outside the United States must be validated by an organization belonging to the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES). An evaluation report from an accrediting organization must be submitted prior to any decision to hire. To view a listing of the current members of (NACES), please visit <http://www.naces.org/members.htm>.

Final offer of employment will not be made until the candidate also submits a criminal background check and drug testing results.

Mid-Atlantic Christian University, a private, faith based, four year college is committed to equality of educational opportunity and will not discriminate against applicants, students, or employees on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, gender, age, disability, or prior military service. Federal guidelines (Sections 702-703 of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act) clearly recognize the right of church related institutions to seek personnel who will support the goals of the institution. Being a student or employee at Mid-Atlantic Christian University requires a commitment and lifestyle consistent with the institution's mission and values.

Mid-Atlantic Christian University is accredited by:
The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award certificates, associate, and baccalaureate degrees.