

Mid-Atlantic Christian University Announcement for Full-Time Faculty Position

Elementary Education (Rank Open) And Director of Teacher Education

Position Description:

This is a full-time faculty position, beginning July 1, 2019. Salary is commensurate with experience and degree held at the time of appointment. Responsibilities include:

- Advance the Teacher Education program by forming positive and collaborative relationships with school and school district agencies and officials, supporting recruitment activities for the program, and continually enhancing curricular and assessment activities of the program.
- Supervising student teaching practicum and internship students.
- Teach elementary education methods courses in areas of specialty (prefer reading and language).
- Engage in academic advisement with Teacher Education students.
- Engage in customary non-instructional activities such as attend committee and faculty meetings, maintain regular office hours.
- Pursue professional development appropriate to the field in which they are hired, in this case education; and be involved in church and community service opportunities.

Qualifications:

All candidates must have an earned doctorate in education or a closely related academic discipline (Ph.D. or Ed.D.), teaching experience, and at least 3 years of successful classroom teaching (grades K-6). The university will consider someone with a master's degree in education but it will be expected that the person will immediately enroll in a doctoral program and continued employment will be dependent upon satisfactory progress and completion of a doctorate degree. The applicant must have a current teaching license for elementary education in the state of NC or be able to apply for one. The applicant must be experientially and theologically committed to the Stone-Campbell faith tradition, and in full agreement with the school's doctrinal statement.

Responsibilities:

The candidate must possess a mature Christian faith and be able to demonstrate teaching competence, scholarly ability and be knowledgeable in his/her discipline. One must be able to contribute to the well being and advancement of an academic Christian community by integrating scholarship with the community's faith tradition. The candidate must be a person of virtuous character and lifestyle who is willing to invest him/herself in the holistic development of students. The candidate must be committed to discipleship training in a Christian college context.

Application Process:

Send (1) a letter of application, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) unofficial copies of all transcripts, (4) a list of three professional references and one spiritual reference whom the university may contact, and (5) a statement of teaching philosophy that includes how the applicant has integrated or intends to integrate a Christian Theistic Worldview in the teaching-learning process. All materials may be sent to Dr. Kevin W. Larsen, VP Academic Affairs, Mid-Atlantic Christian University, 715 N. Poindexter Street, Elizabeth City, NC 27909. Materials may also be sent via email:

kevin.larsen@macuniversity.edu

Applications without each of the five aforementioned components will not be reviewed. The application process remains open until the position is filled. To learn more about Mid-Atlantic Christian University, visit the web site at www.macuniversity.edu.

Degrees from outside the United States must be validated by an organization belonging to the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES). An evaluation report from an accrediting organization must be submitted prior to any decision to hire.
