

MADEIRA

History Teacher

The Madeira School is one of the country's premier boarding/day schools for girls with a century of serving the needs of a wide variety of young women from around the country and the world. Located just outside of Washington, DC, on the banks of the Potomac River, in McLean, VA, Madeira enrolls 320 students in grades 9-12.

The Madeira School is seeking a History Teacher to join its faculty for the 2018-2019 school year. The successful candidate will support and achieve the School's mission and vision by effectively facilitating learning in student-centered college preparatory classrooms.

Responsibilities:

- Have the content knowledge and personal flexibility to teach a range of students in a variety of classes including AP Comparative Government and Model UN
- Manage a standard load of up to 21 of 28 blocks of a combination of: teaching, facilitating activities, on-campus campus professional development and collaboration
- Plan and prepare innovative and rigorous instructional content
- Work collaboratively with a team of faculty, colleagues, administrators and parents
- Maintain accurate student records such as grades and comments and communicate such data in accordance with the Academic Calendar and School expectations
- Perform all duties associated with advising, which includes participation in first-year advisor orientation program and serving as a student advisor in subsequent years
- Know how girls learn and use this knowledge to guide instructional and curricular decisions; apply principles of mind, brain and education science when teaching, developing curriculum, and assessing student learning
- Support and act in accordance with the school's mission and values

Requirements:

- Teaching experience required
- Bachelor's degree required, Master's degree preferred (degrees in related subject matter preferred)
- Experience teaching AP Comparative Government and Model UN preferred
- Ability to demonstrate growth mindset, optimism, and belief that all students can learn required
- Ability to innovate and think creatively about education
- Ability to make contribution to the School outside one's academic department, including to activities program, residential program, and interdisciplinary offerings
- Ability to use and adapt to a wide-array of technology as tools to support and deepen student learning and instruction
- Ability to be a practitioner of diversity, equity and inclusion
- Uphold the School's professional standards including punctuality, courtesy and discretion
- Ability to serve three to five weekends each school year of on-campus duties in support of the residential program (includes driving school vehicle)
- Work a daily schedule that begins at 7:50 am and ends at 4:15 pm

To apply, please send your resume and cover letter to hr@madeira.org.