2018 Laird Dart Memorial Scholarship

The Agriculture Development Association (ADA) is pleased to announce the 2018 Laird Dart Memorial Scholarship.

Five $1,000 scholarships are available to applicants based on grades, involvement in school and community activities, personal goals, references, and an agricultural focus in past and future studies.

To qualify for consideration, a child or grandchild of an ADA member must be a high school senior planning to pursue a degree in agriculture or an agriculture-related field as a full time* college or university student.

The funds are to be used for tuition and/or books within one year from the date of the award announcement.

The successful candidates will be selected by the ADA Board of Directors. Awards will be presented at a time and place to be determined by the Directors. The decisions of the Directors are final.

To apply for a scholarship, the applicant is to:

- Provide one (1) letter of reference from a teacher, guidance counselor, principal, or other school official.
- Provide one (1) letter of good character from a non-school related person (may not be written by an immediate family member).
- Provide a transcript showing grades and class ranking. Ranking must be in the upper fifty percent (50%) of the graduating class.
- Provide a brief essay on career goals and plans for achieving the goals.
- By March 22, 2018, send the completed 2018 Laird Dart Memorial Scholarship application and required materials to mimia@lincolnlandagrienergy.com or to:
