

2021 SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM OUTLINE

About Heartland Co-op

Heartland Co-op is one of the largest grain and farm supply companies in Iowa, serving more than 5,900 members from 70+ communities in the state. Heartland Co-op is the largest employer in most of these communities with upwards of 500 full-time employees.

Objectives

The primary goal of the Scholarship Program is to encourage area youth to prepare for a career in agriculture and provide college financial assistance to dependents of Heartland Co-op members.

Scholarship Amount

Heartland Co-op will offer twelve (12) $1,000 scholarships to full-time agriculture students through the Iowa FFA Foundation. The Heartland Co-op Board of Directors has designated the Iowa FFA Foundation to appoint a selection committee to review the applications and rank scholarship recipients, though the Board shall have final approval.

Scholarship Eligibility

- Applicant shall be a Class A Heartland Co-op Member or a dependent of a Heartland Co-op Class A member at the time of application.
- Applicant shall be a full-time student that has been accepted into a college program that offers an agricultural degree, or a 2-year transferable Ag program to go on and major in an agriculture curriculum. Applicant shall enroll in one or more agriculture classes each semester of his/her scholarship year.
- The college's agriculture program must be at any accredited university or college in the U.S. or any 2-year agricultural program.
- Directors and officers of Heartland Co-op and their spouses and/or dependent children shall be prohibited from receiving a Heartland Co-op scholarship.
- Recipient can receive a Heartland Co-op scholarship one time.
- These scholarships are available to applicants who are undergraduate students in two or four year programs. High school seniors, as well as college freshmen, sophomores and juniors are eligible to apply – Heartland Co-op scholarships can be awarded to college freshmen through seniors.

Heartland Co-op Scholarship

2021 – 2022 Academic Year

Heartland Co-op will offer twelve (12) scholarships of $1,000 each through the Iowa FFA Foundation. These will be awarded to undergraduate students in two or four year college programs. Recipients will be selected according to the following criteria: 1.) outstanding leadership potential, 2.) good scholarship, and 3.) financial need. Applicant must be a full-time student that has been accepted into a college program that offers an agricultural degree at any accredited university or college in the U.S. or a two-year transferable Ag program to go on and major in an agricultural curriculum. One or more agriculture classes shall be taken each semester of the scholarship year. In addition to completing this application, two persons (not relatives) shall send a single-page, double-spaced, recommendation for you. The postmark deadline for applications and recommendations is March 5, 2021.
