JSA Select Pricing™

Kokomo Grain has teamed up with JSA to offer an exciting producer marketing tool

PROGRAM FEATURES

- Diversify your marketing plan with disciplined execution on a fixed amount of bushels.
- 100% of bushels enrolled are priced by the end date. No double up or knock out features.
- The professionals at JSA establish a hedge utilizing both futures and options to actively manage the position seeking to enhance the final price you receive.
- Full Transparency with weekly pricing updates, trade notifications and open positions available on the JSA mobile app.
- Multiple pricing windows for bushels off the combine or out of the bins
- Offered for corn, beans & hard red wheat

Professionally marketed with a fundamental approach and technical influence
