

March 28, 2019

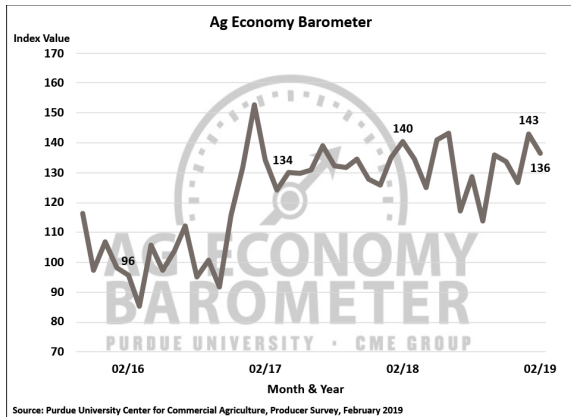

Now would be an excellent time to review your grain position and get open offers in place to make both old crop and new crop sales.

Soybean and corn futures prices stabilized today with little help from the weekly export sales report. There was positive rhetoric in news wires today about the US/China trade negotiations in play in China. News wires carried stories of 1.5mmt of soybean purchases by China with another 1-2 mmt being discussed.

You can review charts (futures, basis and cash prices) on the KG web site.
