

Farmers Cooperative Invites You to Attend Our 2016 Ladies' Night Out

Ladies Night

Rebecca Long Chaney

Rebecca has been able to obtain her dream, to grow as a person from her experience, and conquer the fears that would have stopped most of us from going on the journey. A journey about living. It's a journey about not giving up and getting more.

"Dare to Risk Life Change" which highlights the trials and tribulations she and her husband had during a life-changing adventure on a million-acre cattle ranch in the Australian Outback... before children which ultimately prepared them for the life-changing decision to move 1,400 miles away from family and friends.

This incredible journey, filled with physical and emotional challenges, lead to the publication of Bulldust in My Bra.
