“Investing in Comark Grain was the single best decision our coop has ever made.”
Machelle Shouse, GM Farmers Coop Assn. Columbus.
- Maintain local identity.
“In South Central Kansas we find ourselves competing with much larger Cooperatives and several International Grain Companies. All of us are trying to be first to the farmer gate with cutting edge contracts and aggressive bids. As a group of small to medium sized Cooperatives, we can now compete with first class grain merchandisers, freight staffing, and excellent support staff that we could not afford as a single Cooperative. All of this is available while we still keep our local identity”.
Terry Kohler, GM Farmers Coop Elevator Garden Plain.
