

2019 ATSSA Legislative Briefing & Fly-In Scholarship Application
Wednesday, May 1 – Thursday, May 2, 2019
Washington Court Hotel
525 New Jersey Ave NW, Washington, DC 20001
Washington, D.C.

Carolinas ATSSA Chapter is pleased to offer two (2) scholarships for first-time attendees to attend the 2019 Legislative Briefing and Fly-In, May 1-2, 2019 in Washington, D.C. This conference is a unique opportunity for members to meet high-level policymakers as well as interact with senators, congressmen, and hear from department of transportation (DOT) officials.

Why is Your Attendance Important?

ATSSA and its members must influence Congress' decision to provide critical roadway safety infrastructure funds which will increase opportunities for your company and help reduce fatalities and serious injuries on our roads.

- Meet with members of Congress and congressional staff
- Develop long-lasting relationships with legislators
- Advance our industry's mission of Toward Zero Deaths

About the Program

This program is designed to provide ATSSA members with the information and confidence to present key industry issues directly to members of Congress. An experienced ATSSA member or an ATSSA staff person will work side-by-side with you.

- Convey the importance of road safety and infrastructure improvements
- Articulate contributions your company can make in reducing fatalities

Scholarship Application Process

Travel expenses will be included with the scholarship up to $1000 including mileage or coach airfare, lodging and meals. Your hotel cost will be reimbursed only if hotel rooms are reserved with the ATSSA room block through the official housing, RHS. Scholarships are non-transferable without prior written approval from the Carolinas Chapter. Scholarships will be awarded to (1) first-time attendee from North Carolina and (1) attendee from South Carolina.
