AT THE CROSS ROADS

CHEONG CHEE WAI

A composite image featuring a person standing on the moon's surface, looking up at the Earth. The Earth is a large, curved blue and white sphere dominating the upper half of the frame. The moon's surface is a dark, textured grey. The person is a small silhouette in the center of the lower half, with a long shadow cast behind them.

Do you think you can change a person's worldview
(or perspective)?

Key Takeaways

1. When you are at the crossroad, take the 'road to the cross' to see the Truth.
2. Our present reality influenced by our senses must be overshadowed by the ULTIMATE future reality perceived and anchored by the eternal truth.
3. Change in Worldview/Perspective requires both 'outside in' intervention and 'inside out' transformation.
4. Worldview/Perspective must precede your passion
