PART 4

PERSONAL GROWTH

| Put God to the test. Figure out what 10% of your earnings would be.                                                                                                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Begin trusting God and tithing. Try it for 90 days or even just a month. And if you're already tithing, I want you to pray for those taking this challenge and continue to put God first in your finances. |
| What scares you about giving to God?                                                                                                                                                                       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Is there anything stopping you from giving to God?                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| What can you do to trust God and not let that thing get in the way?                                                                                                                                        |
