Back On Track

Luke 15:16-18 16) And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. 17) And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! 18) I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

Great revelation about the love of God is revealed in the parable of the prodigal son. Most of us are familiar with this parable: A father has two sons. One day one of the sons, deciding that he doesn't need to be at home anymore, asks his father for his inheritance. The father, being the tenderhearted, compassionate, loving, and giving father that he is, consents to the son's request. The son, loaded with riches, departs and journeys into a far-off country—away from the only home and the only goodness he has ever known. The son does the unthinkable and spends the unthinkable until he is left with the unthinkable—nothing. At his lowest point without family, food, finances, shelter, etc., he finds himself fraternizing with the unthinkable—pigs. Just when he is down in the trough with the pigs and getting ready to eat what they are eating, he comes to himself. He has a "redemptive revelation." The son realizes that his father's servants are living better and eating better, in his father's house, than he is. At this point, his life gets back on track.

This year 2020 is all about "clarity of vision." The year is also about getting back on track and staying on track with God's plan for your life. God has marvelous plans for you, and He wants you to know who you are in Him as much as He wants you to know Him. God is love. Once the prodigal son, hits the road that his house is on, the father has been watching for him and runs to greet him. Immediately the prodigal son confesses his faults and mistakes and even says that he is not fit to be called his father's son. The father remains unmoved by all of what the son says. For the father is just happy to have his son home. The father is so elated and joyful, he orders a new robe of righteousness be put on his son, shoes of purpose be placed on his feet, and a ring of authority be placed on his finger. The prodigal son is not prodigal anymore. What the enemy meant for the son's defeat and destruction, even though it was wrought by the son's own doing, the father reverses for the son and restores him to wholeness and true sonship.

The redemptive revelation of God is laced with love. God wants us to know that he loves us. We are sons, not prodigals. We were not designed to eat what pigs eat. We were not designed to do whatever we want to do and say whatever we want to say and treat people, ourselves included, however we want. In other words, we were not designed to live without restraint. Because God loves us so much, He gives us redemptive revelation that we may experience His goodness by living with restraint and divine purpose. Christ Jesus keeps us together, for by Him all things consist and are held together according to Colossians. Now is the time to get back on track and give your full attention to the Word of God so you can reach your purpose and position in Christ through love.

God Has Made Room for You!

God revealed to Pastor Taffe to raise the money needed for LBDM's annual budget at the beginning of the year to remove the weight and pressure off of him and the ministry—a principle God gave him for Apostles and Pastors in the Body of Christ.

The offering you give towards this cause is a First Fruits offering and what Pastor Taffe has named your Rehoboth seed. According to scripture "Rehoboth" means wide spaces and streets—in other words God has made room for Life by Design and you to do greater ministry in a greater way for God's glory. Give cheerfully because you make ministry happen. Let the Holy Ghost lead you in what to give. Thank you for all you do. May the grace to give be upon you.

By Scherry Tyson

In a Catholic school cafeteria, a nun placed a note in front of a pile of apples, "Only take one. God is watching." Further down the line was a pile of cookies. A little boy made his own note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."
