Come celebrate with us!

The family of Windell Denney invites you to join them in celebrating Windell’s 80th birthday, Saturday, July 8th, from 2-4 in the fellowship hall. No gifts please.

It’s Just How You Look at It

When I look at a cluster of dandelions, I see a bunch of weeds that are going to take over my yard. Children see flowers for the elderly neighbor lady or little white balloons that float in the wind as you blow on them.

When I feel wind on my face, I brace myself against it. I think of the cold winter to come. Children close their eyes, spread their arms and fly with it, until they fall to the ground laughing.

When I pray, I’m serious, I use formal words. I ask for healing, assistance, or forgiveness. Children in Sunday School say, “Hi God! Thanks for my toys and my friends and good things to eat.”

When I see a mud puddle, I step around it. I see muddy shoes and floors that need to be mopped. Children sit in it. They see mud-houses to build, rivers to cross and worms to play with.

When I look at a homeless fellow and he smiles at me, I see a smelly, dirty person who probably wants money and I look away. Children see someone smiling at them and they smile back.

I wonder if we are given kids to teach...or to learn from.

No wonder God loves the little children, and Jesus says “unless you’re like this little child...” (Luke 18:17).

Brother David Laton, from Prattville, Alabama, spoke this past Wednesday, presenting passages and thoughts about reasons to pray and attitudes in prayer. He mentioned that we often wait to pray more earnestly when life forces us to be on our back and look up to God. This Wednesday, Nicky Pressnell plans to be with us, followed by Caleb Colquitt the next week. We are always profited by focusing on

BIBLE CLASS UPDATE

Following VBS, our children’s classes return to their schedule of studying chronologically through the Bible. Joshua is an exciting book, wherein we see the great leadership of Joshua, the wonderful faith of servant like Rahab and Caleb and the amazing works of the Lord God. The main message of Joshua is – serve God in sincerity and truth and put away false gods (Joshua 24:14).

CAMPING TOWARD CANAAN’S HAPPY LAND

One of the great blessings of our brotherhood is the opportunity of Bible camps. Camp provides the opportunity to grow in Bible knowledge and enjoy activities among Christian people. David plans to teach during the senior week at Fall Creek Falls this week and then take a few of our members back next week (July 2-7) for the junior week of camp. Please pray for safety, spiritual growth and a sound mind (and body). * By the way, this year’s theme at camp is on “Fact Checking.” The facts about heaven, hell, Jesus, salvation, forgiving others, and God’s purpose will be presented, as well as a focus on the question – why are there so many churches?

LEAF

A little boy, on a visit to his grandparents’ house, discovered an old family Bible. As he flipped through its worn and scattered pages, he was astonished when an ancient leaf that had been pressed between the pages fell out. He ran into the sitting room and proudly held the leaf aloft. “Granny, Papa, we’re rich! I’ve found Adam’s clothes from the garden!”

GOOD NEWS!

How grateful to our Lord we are that Keslee Addison was baptized into Christ this past Monday evening. We commend her for hearing and learning the truth, then deciding to obey the gospel (I Peter 4:16,17). Becoming a Christian is possible because of the grace of God, the death/resurrection of Jesus, and the words of the New Testament, “the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Eph.6:17). In these words, we learn about the necessity of faith, repentance, confession and baptism (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; Rom.10:9,10).

YOUNG MEN TO LEAD US IN WORSHIP

This evening, we plan for some of the young men to lead us in prayer, singing and scripture reading during worship. Please come back and be prepared to give glory to God for who He is and all that He has done and is doing for all of us. “I will call upon the Lord who is worthy to be praised” (Psalm 18:3). For our purposes, “young men” includes those from a tender age to young men in their 20’s. The participation of the older young men encourages the younger ones and creates a unity which please the Lord. * Please see David or Preston for assignments this evening. If you would like to read ahead, tonight’s worship will focus on readings from I John and God’s challenge for us to love like Him. Thank you.

GRATEFUL TO HELP

Several of our members were able to go and assist with the one-night VBS at Arley church of Christ in Winston County last week. We were able to teach the classes of Joshua and Esther to children of various ages, plus conduct a 2 and 3 year old class. Additionally, a teen and adult class was held, then the teens and adults combined for about twenty five minutes of gospel singing. There were visiting families from the community and there was a delightful food and fellowship time after the dismissal. A very special thank you, first to Chuck and Jill for handling many of the details and, second, to our brethren from Curry church of Christ who brought several families to the event.
