

Second LOOK

The first step in buying a home today is getting pre-approved for a mortgage. That allows a buyer to shop confidently and write a contract quickly when they find the right home.

And that's all good. But how do you know that's the best you can do?

At Allen Tate Mortgage, we put you first – with our Second Look program.

Second Look is an opportunity for buyers who have talked with another lender to meet with an Allen Tate Mortgage loan officer for a no-obligation second opinion about home financing.

1. We'll meet with you and learn about your financial goals and objectives.
2. We'll talk with you about loan programs and options you may have not considered – and the advantages of working with a local, in-house mortgage lender.
3. We'll help you understand and compare interest rates, fees, services and other pieces of the financial puzzle – before your financing is locked in.

In other words, we'll make sure you're sure about your most important investment. Then, we'll give you a $100 VISA gift card for your time.

We'd love the opportunity to earn your business, by finding the best loan program for you. And all we're asking for is a Second Look.
