

BIO – Lauren Ingram (Returning Young Shakespearean)

Lauren is an art student, planning to attend Langara's fine arts program in 2019. A former dance student, Lauren learned theatre arts and Shakespeare studies through YWS (since 2013) and Mike Stack's Vancouver Home Learners Shakespeare Troupe. She participated as a youth actor and Youth Costume Lead with a community theatre company for several years. Lauren completed the Digital Media Academy certificate program (Argyle Secondary, N Van) with a focus on graphic and web design, and volunteers her design skills to community non-profits and small projects. Lauren incorporates digital technology into her art, is learning about the vocaloid industry, and is studying beginner Japanese. Lauren also plays violin and guitar, and can often be found haunting the Vancouver Art Gallery.
