

BIO – Nolan Ingram (Returning Young Shakespearean)

Nolan is a Grade 10 home learning student, with a focus on Medieval European studies, including pursuing Western Martial Arts and history through Academie Duello, where Nolan is both a student and a volunteer. Nolan is a dancer, working on the ISTD tap syllabus exams, and volunteers as an assistant tap teacher. Nolan is also piper with the RMM Grade 4 Pipe Band (SFU.) A student with the YSW since 2013, Nolan loves engaging with the performing arts community; he participated in Mike Stack's Vancouver Home Learners Shakespeare Troupe, and is a youth actor with a community theatre company. He has taken beginner blacksmithing, is learning percussion, violin, and guitar, and is also studying the culinary arts.
