

BIO – Matthew Rhodes (Participated in Young Shakespeareans)

Matthew is a third year Riotous Youth with a deep passion for Shakespeare. He is pursuing a BFA in Acting at UBC with a concurrent Masters in Management at the Sauder School of Business. For UBC: The Crucible (Thomas Putnam), Great Slave Lake (Astor), Hotel Amore (Flavio), Edward II (Spenser), Crimp Shorts (3). Additional credits: Home Fires Burning (Earnest) with UBC Players Club, You're a Good Man Charlie Brown (Charlie Brown) with UBC Musical Theatre Troupe. He was a gold-level volunteer at Bard during the 2013-16 seasons and participated in eight Young Shakespeareans workshops. He is the fortunate recipient of the Kensaku Asano Award and the Neil Freeman Memorial Scholarship. Twitter: @RhodesTheatre