

BIO - Anna Galvin (Actress; Daughter Participates in Young Shakespeareans)

Anna is an actress with over 3 decades experience in theatre, film and TV. Anna was educated at the University of Melbourne (BA, BCom) and the Oxford School of Drama, Oxford, UK. Recent film and TV credits include Warcraft, iZombie, Once Upon a Time, Supernatural, and Loudermilk. Anna is cast in the TV mini series Unspeakable which starts production this month. Anna's local theatre credits include Comedy of Errors and Loves Labours Lost for Bard on Beach, Dangerous Corner for The Vancouver Playhouse, The Philanderer, Calendar Girls, Other Desert Cities, Vanya, Sonja Masha and Spike for the Artsclub. Last year Anna played Queen Elizabeth in the Artsclub's production of The Audience alongside her daughter Bianca who played Princess Elizabeth - Bianca was 12 at the time. Bianca has gleefully participated in countless Young Shakespearean workshops with Bard on The Beach. Anna is also a speech, dialect and drama coach and the Artistic Director of Lyrebird Academy of Dramatic Arts.