

BIO – KRISTY KENNEDY

Kristy Kennedy was a member of Toronto Dance Theatre for 10 seasons earning a Dora Mavor Moore nomination for Best Ensemble Performance before turning freelance, and has performed works by many of the country's leading choreographers, both nationally and internationally. She has also performed in numerous dance films, features, shorts and music videos, as well as several collective theatre creations. She moved to Los Angeles in 2015. Kristy has also photographed dance and dancers for the last several years, and is currently developing her craft as a potter. Her work can be seen at markets around LA and on Instagram @kikicermicsla. Most recently, Kristy produced and performed 'Mirror Staging the Seeing Place' in LA, and performed in the Black Choreographers Festival of San Francisco.
