

Song Lyric Ideas From

Music Industry

How To

Song Lyric Ideas from Music Industry How To

Hi there. Here are some ideas for song lyrics you can use. You can get more great guides and resources like this by signing up to the Music Industry How To newsletter so do that now. Use the below with a good guide on how to write a great song easily.

Songs About Love And Relationships

- A song about someone you fancy but they don't know you exist.
- A song about a love that can't be broken up.
- A song about wishing you had your ex back.
- A song about a new relationship with someone and everything's exciting.
- A song about someone you like but they like someone else.
- A song about heartbreak.
- A song about how you're going to get someone you like.

Songs About Having Fun

- A song about partying in a club.
- A song about a new dance move you've created.
- A song about a popular dance move. A song about being a rebel.
- A song about going on holiday and what you'll do.
- A song about fun times at school.
- A song about it being the weekend and you doing what it is you want.

Songs About People

- A song about someone you admire (not in a boyfriend / girlfriend way)
- A song about someone you miss (maybe they've passed away, a tribute song).
- A song about your parents or other family members and how you're there for them.
- A song thanking family members who have always been there for you.

Songs About Religion

- A song about your faith.
- A song about a religious event you celebrate.
- A song about what your religion means to you.

Songs About Situations

A song about how an event made you feel.

A song about a life event you went through and you want to speak about.

A song about a life event you've seen someone else go through (100% don't mention their name or make it obvious it's about them unless they're genuinely ok with it).

Songs About You

A song giving an introduction to you and what you're about.

A song about why you're the best at what you do.

A song about growing up and how things change.

Songs About Money

A song about how you're doing financially.

A song about being broke and hard times.

A song about you having a lot of money and what you're going to buy.

A song about other people and their money situations.

A song about how money affects things.

You can see more advice for musicians like this over at Music Industry How To. You should:

Register to get free guides sent to your email inbox.

How to write a great song easily.