Jon Craver

Jon Craver played for the Hubs in the 1977 & 1978 seasons then went on to play at James Madison (1979-1982). After college Craver was signed in May of 1983 as a free agent by the NFL's New England Patriots and made the Pats pre-season roster. After being released prior to the '83 NFL season, the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League signed Craver for the remainder of the 1983 season. The following year Craver was signed in April of '84 by the Houston Oilers and made the NFL teams pre season roster. He was released prior to the regular season. In April of 1985 Craver was signed by the Cleveland Browns and appeared in several pre-season games. Craver just missed making the regular season roster before being released in the final round of roster cuts prior to the start of the '85 season. After his release from the Browns, Craver decided to hang up the cleats after a fine football career. He was the second Hub to ever to appear in a NFL (pre-season) game - Barry Beers was the first.

Barry Beers

Barry Beers played for the Hubs in 1968 & 1969 season before heading to William & Mary to play college football. Beers played offensive guard for William & Mary from 1970-1973, starting every game in his junior and senior seasons. Following the 1973 season Beers was selected to play in the NCAA Blue Grey All-Star Game. In the spring of 1974, Beers was selected in the 16th round of the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs and also in the World Football League draft by the Philadelphia Bell. Beers signed with the Chiefs and played in four pre-season games, including one in the LA Coliseum where he was matched up against NFL Hall of Famer Merlin Olson. The former Hub was released by Kansas City prior to the 1974 season and decided his playing days were over. Beers went on to coach high school football in Virginia and coached two all-time NFL greats - Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Mel Gray. Taylor is arguably the greatest defensive player in NFL history and Gray was one of the greatest kick returners in pro football history.

North players earn All-State recognition

By DAN KAUFFMAN
kauffman@herald-mail.com
Following an unprecedented season of success for North Hagerstown's football team, John Kline and Derrick Keith earned Second Team All-State Small School defensive honors Wednesday.

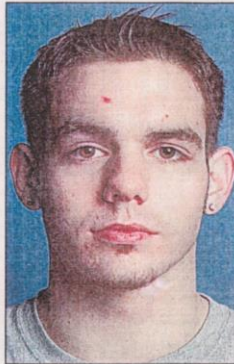

Kline, who broke the career record for sacks at North, led the area with 13 sacks last season. Keith, The Herald-Mail Defensive Player of the Year, made 63 tackles (43 unassisted) and five fumble recoveries to anchor the Hubs' defense, which led the way to an 11-1 record — including a perfect 10-0 regular-season mark — and a berth in the Class 2A West final.

St. John's at Prospect Hall's Keith Ricca was the only other area player to make an All-State first or second team, earning Small School Second Team honors. Ricca passed for an area-best 3,361 yards and 41 touchdowns.

Six Washington County players earned Small School Honorable Mention, including two each from North Hagerstown and Smithsburg.

Hubs running back Bryan Slater and kicker Brent Toms were selected. Slater rushed for a team-leading 1,018 yards — averaging 9.7 yards per carry as North's top big-play threat — and tied for the area lead with 16 rushing touchdowns. Toms set North's single-season record for PATs.

Leopards linebacker Matt Feiser and defensive back T.J. Bowser were selected. Feiser led Smithsburg with 136 tackles and added four fumble recoveries and two interceptions. Bowser led the area with seven interceptions.

South Hagerstown defensive back David Miner and Hancock linebacker Jordan Sterner were also selected. Miner had two interceptions and most teams stayed away from his side of the field. Sterner led the Panthers with 116 tackles.

Walkersville placed five players — running back Antoine Crawford, offensive lineman Dan Dreisonstok, kicker Travis Hubbard, defensive lineman Jayson Hoelscher and punter Dave Berry, on honorable mention. Crawford ended his career as the Lions' top runner after adding 1,177 yards and 11 touchdowns to his resume, thanks in large part to Dreisonstok's blocking. Hoelscher had 40 tackles and 7 1/2 sacks.

Four Middletown players — running back Shawn Beachley, offensive linemen Jason Doherty and Mike Holda and linebacker Chris Nichols — earned honorable mention. Beachley finished third in the area with 1,350 rushing yards and added 14 touchdowns. Doherty and Holda opened many of the holes Beachley and Dan McCallion (1,001 yards) ran through. Nichols led the Knights in tackles and was past of the Super 22 All-Star team.

Catoctin offensive lineman J.R. Whittsell and defensive back Jason Johnson were also selected. Johnson made 77 tackles, including nine for losses and two sacks, and added two interceptions. Whittsell helped pave the way for running backs Joe Rakoski and Dave Burrier.

A perfect ending

North routs rival to cap unbeaten regular season

By MARK KELLER
mkeller@herald-mail.com

Fans and foes of the North Hagerstown football team should have paid closer attention to Hubs coach Danny Cunningham in the preseason. The third-year coach knew there was something special with his team in 2003 when he said, "We may be a year away from 9-1 or 10-0, but it could happen."

On Friday night, it happened. The Hubs completed the first unbeaten season in the school's 47-year history with a 41-0 victory over South Hagerstown in the Hagerstown Gridiron Championship Classic at School Stadium.

"I've been here for 9-10 and I've been here for 10-0," Cunningham said. "I tell you, 10-0 feels a whole lot better."

The Hubs locked up much more than a perfect season with Friday's win. They won the first MVAL Antietam Conference title with a 6-0 record, they took home the trophy for the city championship and guaranteed themselves at least one home game in the Maryland Class 2A West playoffs.

The Hubs will be the No. 2 seed in the regional playoffs, finishing 10 behind South Carroll. North most likely will face Fort Hill in the first round.

"We never talked about the playoffs. The only thing we talked about was this game," said North running back Bryan Slater, who led the Hubs with 75 yards rushing and three touchdowns. "I couldn't wait for this game to be over so we could start talking about the playoffs."

It took the Hubs just 13 seconds to get all the points they needed Friday night as Leon Inley returned the opening kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 North lead.

"They take advantage of their opportunities, and that set the fire right off the bat," South coach Greg Kellick said. "No one is really run one back on us this year, but they hit that one."

After forcing a Rebels punt, Slater broke free on a third-and-play, going 66 yards to the end zone. A personal foul penalty on Miner moved the ball to the 4 and Rigo Valentin punched it in 15 plays later for a 14-0 lead.

From there, the story was the North defense. The Rebels were stunted to just two first downs and yards of offense in the first half as they stifled every South attempt to run around the ends.

North Hagerstown's Bryan Slater (31) eludes South Hagerstown's Brett Burger on his way to the end zone with the Hubs' final touchdown Friday night at School Stadium.

"We know Miner is dangerous. The key was for us to stay wide," said North defensive end John Kline. "We had to not bite on his move and keep him in the pocket and let the linebackers and linemen do the rest."

North held the Rebels to 64 yards and just five first downs on the night. South averaged nearly 27 points a game through the first seven weeks of the season, but scored just once in the last three games.

"That's one of the things that has stumped us. We have not moved the ball at all the last three weeks," Kellick said. "All of a sudden Smithsburg shifts us out, we score in the last 11 seconds against Brunswick and tonight we get shut out big time."

Slater made sure there would be no chance for the Rebels (3-7, 2-4) to climb back into the game. On a fourth-and-14 play early in the second quarter, Slater completed a halfback pass to Danny Zamora at the South 1, then capped the drive with a 1-yard run.

"I think that pass really kind of broke their backs early in the game," Cunningham said.

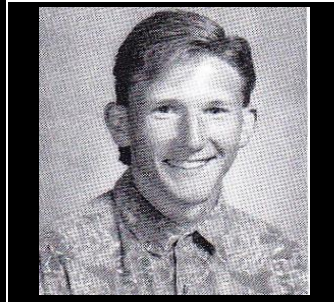

On North's next drive, Slater broke off a pair of 15-yard runs, the second for a score that gave the Hubs a 27-0 halftime lead.

North broke the Rebels' year-old record for most points scored by a team in the city game and the largest margin of victory. South won last year's game, 39-0.

A gridiron classic

South battles, but North wins

By TIM KOBLE
tkoble@heraldonline.com

This one was different from the last last. North Hagerstown had grown accustomed to being walloped over South Hagerstown, with the outcome often decided early in the Friday night or early Saturday matinee. The home field advantage that South Hagerstown has on home turf with a final record that shows decided over the last 10 seasons, 43-10-2, made it all the more surprising that North Hagerstown pulled out the upset victory in a 27-20 victory on Friday.

The difference came in the red zone at South Hagerstown 15 & 16, 16, 17 knotted on the field. After three plays without getting a point on the scoreboard.

"North got that first drive and we knew we had to get that last drive and we knew we had to get that last drive," said North coach Dan Canning. "South is a good team."

The Rebels marched 70 yards in nine plays off the opening kickoff on Saturday. Blake ran for 70 yards and 10:00. Phillips III to help set up a 7-yard run by Nick Green on an eight-minute drive.
