QUOTE OF THE WEEK

If you train hard, you'll not only be hard, you'll be hard to beat.
-- Heisman Winner, Herschel Walker

WEATHER CHANGE

Many have noticed the change in weather. The air is cooler and the sun sets earlier. Please make sure your athletes wear proper attire. Layers, long sleeves, gloves, hats. Let's make sure our players and cheerleaders stay warm and healthy.

THIS SATURDAY 9/24: PARENTS, WE NEED YOU...

Please dedicate some time at the concession stand this Saturday as we play Montclair at home. Come before and/or stay after your child plays/cheers to help us. This is a critical fundraising tool for our team. See a board member for more details.

REMEMBER: SCHOOL FIRST!

EFFORT IS KEY TO VICTORY

A busy weekend indeed: Two days, three opponents, nine contests. Saturday saw mixed results but Sunday just wasn't Jr. Jag's day. Overall, we saw good effort; it just didn't translate into many wins.

Jr. Pee Wee A continue their streak - it's been impossible to score against them this season. Jr. Midgets put on a great show for us in Robeson Saturday night and Flag A registered their second decisive win.

Despite losing, there were some solid moments in each of the other games that our teams played.

Whether it was a 4th quarter touchdown, a 2nd half shut out, break away runs, first downs, or defensive stands, our young men gave us reasons to cheer. For Junior Jaguars, giving up is simply not an option. We applaud you warriors who didn't stop until that last whistle blew.

We've got to learn from our mistakes and come back even stronger. We can control our attitude and our effort. Let's stay focused and committed. Go Jag's!

Who was Paul Robeson?

We play our home games in a stadium named after this remarkable, NJ- born man who possessed tremendous talents. Some important facts:

1. He was born in Princeton on April 19, 1898, the youngest of 5.
2. His father was a runaway slave who went on to graduate from Lincoln University
3. Won a four year ACADEMIC scholarship to Rutgers University

8. Known as a citizen of the world and fought for peace and justice.
