Talent Gets You Noticed, Character Gets You Recruited

There are a lot of talented athletes out there, but talent alone will not land you a coveted roster spot. Your talent may get your foot in the door, but it takes a lot more to hit the field at the next level. Recruiters are looking for intangibles; the things that cannot be easily measured, but make all the difference. Here are the most common questions recruiters are searching for answers to when deciding whether they should recruit you or not.

What you doing when you think no one is watching?

Are you one thing in person, and another person online?

Who are your biggest influences?

Are you a great teammate?

Do you make a good first impression?

Do you show a sense of gratitude?

Your reputation is who people think you are. Your character is who you are when you think no one is paying attention. Someone is always paying attention. You must be the exception. You must be extra-ordinary. That's how you get recruited!

November Tryouts

2017 Tournament Update

In the PG Super25 Northeast Fall Super Qualifiers, the Keystone War Eagles were champs in 14U while the Baltimore Redbirds took the title in 15U.

This concludes our events for 2017. Thank you to all the players, coaches and parents who helped make this a successful tournament season for RCBC. Thank you too to all of our tournament staff, umpires and concession workers who ensure that our tournaments run smoothly and professionally.

Look for our 2018 tournament schedule coming out soon on www.rctournaments.com.

Congrats Coach Grippo

Congratulations to Coach Mike Grippo who was recently announced as the new varsity coach of the Tottenville High School baseball program. Mike is an alumnus of Tottenville and heads back to take over one of the premier public high school baseball programs in the city. Best of luck Coach Grip.
