and play once against each Senior team to a total of twenty-three games, SECONDED by Vice President Brownridge, CARRIED.

The Executive discussed possible breakdowns for Senior Divisions and came up with two proposals.

PROPOSAL ONE

North	South
Barrie 'A'	Angus
Clearview	Aurora
Creemore	Barrie 'B'
Lisle	Bolton
Midland	Ivy
New Lowell	Mansfield
Orillia	S.C. Cougars

PROPOSAL TWO

East	West
Aurora	Angus
Barrie 'A'	Clearview
Barrie 'B'	Creemore
Bolton	Ivy
Midland	Lisle
Orillia	Mansfield
S.C. Cougars	New Lowell

The Executive discussed possible options for playoffs and came up with three proposals.

Proposal One: The first two rounds of playoffs are played within each division. The final series would see the division champions face off.

Proposal Two: The top four teams from each division would be seeded based on overall points from the regular season. Teams would be reseeded after the first round.

Proposal Three: The first place team in each division would play the fourth place team in the other division, and the second place team in each division would play the third place team in the other division. A different pairing system would need to be used for the second round.
