5. NEW BUSINESS

(a) Playoffs

Senior teams were reminded that the first round of playoffs in the Senior Division start on Tuesday, August 4 and end on Friday, August 14, the second round start on Saturday, August 15 and end on Thursday, August 27, and the final series start on Saturday, August 29.

Teams were informed to start weeknight games at 6:15 where possible, unless the park is equipped with lights.

President Brownridge encouraged teams to schedule games early in the first round to allow for inclement weather.

Todd Patton (New Lowell) asked if a playoff game is cancelled, would the next scheduled game be the home game of the team who had the cancelled game. It was decided that the home team should remain the home team at the next scheduled game, unless the cancelled game can be played at the original home team park before the next scheduled game. President Brownridge expressed teams to use common sense in deciding schedule concerns and/or contact series convenor.

Vance White (Barrie 'A') asked if double headers are permitted. The Executive had no issues with double headers.
