

First annual Union Valley “SEND ME”

BAZAAR

It's getting close to that time of the year again, yes Spring cleaning.....this year instead of throwing out your treasures why not donate them to the first annual Union Valley SEND ME Bazaar to be held February 18, 2012, in the New family Life building.

We will be accepting the following items for the sale:

Clothing, cleaned and in good shape, Furniture, Appliances (large and small if working), Dishes, Pot & pans, knickknacks, and whatever else you may want to give.

There will be food and fun for all, we will also have a raffle for a homemade Quilt donated by Ruby Potter, (tickets will start going on sale soon)

All money raised will go towards the Armenia mission trip.

For more info please contact the church at 882-6189, Please start clearing out your closet now to give us time to tag everything. Donation can be dropped off at the rock house here at the church, or if you need help with items being donated let us know and we can make arrangements for pick up
