Cradled between the rivers and the hills, the vast municipality of Pontiac is located west of Gatineau. Fans of regional products will be enticed by local growers and vineyards, while those who like astronomy will be dazzled by starry skies, thanks to AstroPontiac. The region is also bicycle friendly, with a must-stop at Luskville Falls.

Flanked by the magnificent hills of Gatineau Park and the Gatineau River, the municipality of La Pêche, north of Gatineau, is renowned for its numerous annual festivals, exhibits and cultural events. Visitors will discover local products, while outdoor enthusiasts enjoy horseback riding, golfing, canoeing and kayaking. A stroll in the historic village of Wakefield unveils its unique character and laid-back way of life.

The gateway to Gatineau Park, the municipality of Chelsea prides itself on its culture and picturesque setting. The art galleries, boutiques, cafés, restaurants and other gourmet stops give Chelsea an incomparable charm that is felt year-round. A popular destination for outdoor enthusiasts, this municipality is also proud of its roots, with two historic cemeteries and the Meech Creek Valley heritage route.
