

Members of the Scott family look at a display at the Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum in Coshocton.

Family pass option benefits local museums

COSHOCTON — The 2016 Southeastern Ohio Museum Family Pass is now available at the Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum. A family of four can visit JHM and nine other great museums in Southeastern Ohio for a one-time fee of $25.

The Family Pass is valid from June 1 until the end of the season, which varies from museum to museum. Each participating museum receives 100 percent of the proceeds from the passes it sells.

Other participating museums include:

- The Castle in Marietta
- Historic Noble County Jail Museum in Caldwell
- The Ball-Caldwell Homestead in Caldwell
- Cambridge Glass Museum in Cambridge
- Guernsey County Historical Society Museum in Cambridge
- John & Annie Glenn Home in New Concord
- National Road & Zane Grey Museum in Norwich
- Stone Academy Historical Site and Museum in Zanesville
- Dr. Increase Mathews

House Museum and Gardens in Zanesville

The Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum has five galleries — American Indian (Ohio prehistoric tools and basketry, beadwork and pottery), Historic Ohio (19th c. furnishings, firearms and 20th c. Coshocton advertising art), Asian (Chinese & Japanese artifacts), an eclectic exhibit gallery featuring the Newark Holy Stones, and a special exhibit gallery.

Through July the gallery showcases contemporary artwork that has been inspired by JHM's permanent collections. Beginning Aug. 13th, World War I posters and memorabilia will be displayed in the special exhibit entitled, Remembering the Great War.

The Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum is located in Historic Roscoe Village, a restored canal town, at 300 N. Whitewoman Street, Coshocton. Museum hours are noon to 5 daily through October.

Pottery Lover's Week in Muskingum-co.

Complete your pottery collection during Pottery Lover's Week in Zanesville-Muskingum County July 12-16.

For over 50 years, pottery enthusiasts from all over the United States, and other countries, have flocked to the area to participate in pottery reunions, sales and auctions. This year, over 75 premier pottery dealers will buy, sell and trade collectible pottery from their hotel rooms at the Holiday Inn Express and Comfort Inn Zanesville beginning July 13 at 8 a.m. continuing through July 16. Pottery for sale includes Roseville, Shawnee, Brush, McCoy, Weller and more.

A 'Show and Tell' event will be at the Holiday Inn Express at 6:30 p.m. on July 13 followed by the Pottery Lovers annual auction on July 14 at noon at the Welcome Center in downtown Zanesville.

Other conventions taking place include McCoy Pottery and Hull Pottery July 15 and 16. Visitors may also take advantage of special sales at local pottery and specialty stores as well as open houses and free or discounted tours of many local museums and historic sites.

For more information about events taking place during Pottery Lover's Week, contact the Zanesville-Muskingum County Convention and Visitors Bureau at (740) 455-8282 or 800-743-2303.
