Case: 2018-18922

Author: Ptlm. M. Pastore #116

On May 15, 2018, Shannon Burgess DOB: 01/14/84 SSN:152-78-9625, was reported missing, along with her three year old son, Jayda Ayala-Burgess DOB: 05/29/2015. Shannon is a recovering heroin addict, who family believes may have relapsed and is now missing with her son. Shannon and Jayda were last seen in Cape May Court House NJ boarding a New Jersey Transit Bus, heading to Camden NJ on May 3, 2018 for a two day trip. All attempts to contact Shannon have been unsuccessful since she was last seen on May 3, 2018. Shannon was last seen wearing a pink tank top, black pants with black sandals. Shannon has a tattoo of Chinese symbols on the back of her neck, tribal band on her right arm and a tribal band on her right thigh, that leads to a sun on her navel. Shannon also has a small scar on her chin. Jayda was last seen wearing a white paw patrol t-shirt, paw patrol sandals and plaid shorts. Both subjects have been entered into NCIC as Missing Endangered. Anyone having contact with these subjects is asked to contact the Middle Township Police Department at (609) 465-8700. NIC Numbers: M214537321 and M214537219.
