

ANNUAL EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

KCAU

October 1, 2013 through September 30, 2014

The purpose of the EEO Public File Report ("Report") is to comply with Section 73.2080(c)(6) of the FCC's EEO Rule. This Report has been prepared on behalf of the Station Employment Unit that is comprised of the following station(s):

KCAU

The information contained in this Report covers the time period beginning October 1, 2013 to and including September 30, 2014

(the "Applicable Period"). The FCC's EEO Rule Requires that this Report contain the following information:

1. A list of all full-time vacancies filled by the Stations comprising the Station Employment Unit during the Applicable Period;
2. For each such vacancy, the recruitment sources(s) utilized to fill the vacancy (including, if applicable, organizations entitled to notification pursuant to Section 73.2080(c)(1)(ii) of the EEO Rule, which should be separately identified), identified by name, address, contact person and telephone number;
3. The recruitment source that referred the hiree for each full-time vacancy during the Applicable Period;
4. Data reflecting the total number of persons interviewed for full-time vacancies during the Applicable Period and the total number of interviewees referred by each recruitment source utilized in connection with such vacancies; and
5. A list and brief description of the initiatives undertaken pursuant to Section 73.2080(c)(2) of the FCC rules.

Appendices 1, 2 and 3 which follow have been designed, in the aggregate, to provide the required information. Please note that the alphabet letters listed on Appendix 1 under the column entitled "Recruitment Sources Utilized" refer to the Recruitment Sources listed on Appendix 2.

For purposes of this Report, a vacancy was deemed "filled" when the hiree began work. A person was deemed "interviewed" whether he or she was interviewed in person, over the phone or by e-mail.

Appendix 3 to Annual EEO Public File Report

Covering the Period from October 1, 2013 through September 30, 2014

Station(s) Comprising the Station Employment Unit: KCAU, Sioux City, IA

Section 3: Supplemental (Non-Vacancy Specific) Recruitment Activities Undertaken by KCAU

	Recruitment Initiative	Description
1	Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment	KCAU offers internships in various departments as an opportunity for students to apply their classroom theory to practical work experience. Our internship program offers students the opportunity to experience firsthand the reality of working in the television broadcast industry, and allows us to build goodwill in the communities in which we operate. Spring Semester we had one intern: Morningside College Summer 2014 we had one intern: Western Iowa Tech Community College
2	Participation in job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility for hiring decisions	On March 11, 2014 our Operations Manager participated in the Buena Vista University Career Forum which was open to the Mass Communications and Journalism Departments. We spoke to five students that expressed interest about internship opportunities.
3	Co-sponsoring a job fair with an organization in the business and professional community whose membership includes substantial participation of women and minorities	On September 26, 2013, our station employment unit co-sponsored the Siouxland Broadcasters Career Fair at the Morningside College in Sioux City, IA. We promoted the event on air with the newscasts and promotion, and also posted this on our ABC 9 website. Station participants included our Business Manager, News Director, and a meteorologist. We received 10 applications from the job fair and spoke with five students about internship opportunities.
4	Participation in job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility for hiring decisions	On March 26, 2014 our Local Sales Manager and Office Manager participated in the Wayne State College Career Fair which was open to public and the entire school. We spoke to twenty students about the two open positions. We received 7 resumes and talked to several students that expressed interest about internship opportunities.

5	Providing training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination	The General Manager and Business Manager periodically hold Equal Employment Opportunity meetings to educate department heads as to their EEO role and responsibilities. November 5, 2013, February 4, 2014, June 10, 2014, June 24, 2014 and August 5, 2014. At these meetings, management analyzes recruitment sources and discusses upcoming job fairs to ensure that managers with hiring authority will be in attendance and ensure that department heads understand their EEO reporting requirements. During these meetings, the General Manager and Business Manager also educate department heads as to their responsibility to successfully communicate job responsibilities and expectations, to offer job training and to dispense annual reviews to employees in a non-discriminatory fashion. And all aspects of compliance such as reaching our community, recruiting efforts, outreach, wide dissemination, and self-assessment.
6	Participation in events sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting	On October 8, 2013, a news producer was invited to speak to a "Writing for Journalism" class at her Alma Mater, Morningside College. She spoke about her responsibilities and daily routine in reporting and producing a newscast. She also answered student questions about working in broadcast television.
7	Participation in events sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting	On October 15, 2013, a news anchor spoke with numerous high school sophomores from northeast Nebraska about a career in broadcasting and the requirements and experience that are required. The event was hosted by University of Nebraska in Lincoln, Northeast Nebraska Extension and Wayne State College.
8	Participation in events sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting	On October 18, 2013, our Chief Meteorologist returned to his alma mater, University of Northern Iowa, and spoke with students about his career in broadcast television. He spoke about his responsibilities and daily routine as it relates to meteorology. He also answered student questions.
9	Participation in events sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting	On November 13, 2013, our news anchor spoke with numerous students at Wausa High School about a career in broadcasting. She set up a display table and spoke with the students about job opportunities in television and the education needed to obtain a job in broadcast television.
10	Participation in events sponsored by educational institutions relating	On November 26, 2013, a news producer and assignment editor were invited to speak with "Electronic Journalism" class at their Alma Mater, Morningside College. They spoke about her duties and responsibilities to career opportunities in broadcasting	associated with producing a newscast. She also answered student questions about working in broadcast television.

11	Participation in job bank program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment	KCAU-TV participates in numerous job banks and internet programs in the states of Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota designed to promote outreach generally, as well as those sponsored by TVJobs.com, Medialine.com, the Iowa Broadcasters Association, and the Iowa Broadcast News Association. These organizations have programs designed for outreach generally, and are not primarily directed to providing notification of specific jobs vacancies. See the italicized sources on the recruitment source list above.
12	Co-sponsoring a job fair with an organization in the business and professional community whose membership includes substantial participation of women and minorities	On September 26, 2014, our station employment unit co-sponsored the Siouxland Broadcasters Career Fair at the Western Iowa Tech Community College in Sioux City, IA. We promoted the event on air with in the newscasts and promotion, and also posted this on our ABC 9 website. Station participants included our Operations Manager and Promotions Manager. We received 10 applications from the job fair and spoke with five students about internship opportunities.
