

TO PROVINCETOWN: THE TIP OF CAPE.

Destination: Wired Puppy, Commercial & Pearl Streets (about 32 miles from Ocean Edge)

The Cape Cod Bike and Rail Trail officially ends in Wellfleet, but there are a number of ways to continue on to Provincetown. The easiest by far is to stay on Route 6, and take advantage of the wide, generous shoulder on the road that makes biking easier. At times, you'll notice crossover opportunities on the shore road, but finding your groove on Route 6 might be your best option. The road is challenging yet do-able, but not recommended for novice cyclists.

If it seems like we are leading you from one darn good bakery to the next, we are. If you have made it to Ptown, you have earned the best blueberry muffin on the Cape at Wired Puppy, (379 Commercial St. | 508.487.0017). Open from 6am-8:30pm. You've also earned the right to browse the shops, galleries, and people-watch in Ptown. Some of our favorites are Shor, (277 Commercial Street | 508-487-7467) a home furnishings shop re-interpreting nautical in-home style, Cabot's Candy Store (276 Commercial St. | 508.487.3550), and Century (199 Commercial St. | 508.487.2332), featuring very hip and unique watches, jewelry and other gifts.

Grabbing lunch? Try our faves! The Red Inn (15 Commercial St. | 508.487.7334) serves lunch daily from 11am-2pm and has a Raw Bar Happy Hour every day from 2:30pm-5pm through October 12th. $1.25 shrimp, oysters, and clams! Try the Jazz Brunch from 11am-2pm on Sundays through Oct. 11th. Beginning in November, The Red Inn is only open Friday through Sunday for dinner from 5:30-10pm, and reservations are suggested. Another favorite of ours is Ross' Grill (237 Commercial St. | 508.487.8878), which sits on the waterfront and offers breathtaking harbor views with a European bistro atmosphere and a selection of over 75 different wines. Call for reservations.

Please note: In the off season, businesses may change their hours. We suggest you call ahead.
