

South Dakota One Health Seminar - March 1, 2019

"Preserving the Usefulness of Antibiotics: Efforts in Human and Animal Medicine in South Dakota"

Regional Health - Rapid City Hospital auditorium

Rapid City, SD

Time	Speaker		Topic
9:00 AM	Russ Daly	SD Public Health Vet	Welcome and introductions
9:10 AM	James Keegan	Regional Health Infectious Disease Physician	Antibiotic stewardship and the human microbiome
10:00 AM	Marilee Obritsch	Regional Health Antimicrobial Stewardship Clinical Pharmacist	Antimicrobial stewardship in a large hospital setting
10:45 AM	Erica Koller	DVM, Cheyenne River Animal Hospital	Antibiotic use in South Dakota livestock: A veterinary practitioner's perspective
11:30 AM	Kimberly Kennedy/Carissa Elkins	Regional Health Family Residency Program	Antibiotic use in community/primary care
12:15 PM	Lunch and networking
1:00 PM	Josh Clayton	SD State Epidemiologist	Epidemiology of antibiotic resistant infections in SD
1:45 PM	Russ Daly	SD Public Health Vet	Antimicrobial resistance in animals
2:15 PM	Dustin Oedekoven	SD State Veterinarian	Regulations that govern antibiotic use in animals
3:00 PM	Russ Daly	SD Public Health Vet	On-farm methods that reduce antibiotic use
3:45 PM	Comments and discussion from other participants
4:00 - 4:15 PM	Adjourn		