

Students of Zhigulevsk fight extortion

Sunday March 19, Zhigulevskaya students of the school '16 were told about how the Director of the school of Russian Irina openly extorts money from students and their parents. Every month about 700 students pass at 75 rubles in person to class teachers without any documentary evidence.

This video started active actions of students and parents against the school administration.

With coding homework student demand money

Source: youtube.com

There were no receipts and receipts for the transfer of money is not issued. While trying students get a receipt, the administration responds with a rude refusal. The money collected for "protection", "cleaner" and more.

The conversation with the class teacher

Source: youtube.com

Parents have written the application in office of public Prosecutor addressed to the Director of the school. According to students, after writing a statement of relationship in the school between pupils, teachers and the administration deteriorated.

(source: nocookie.net)

On the website of the school '16 there is no open reporting on financial and economic activities, even though by law the school is obliged to provide such information. We remind you that according to the official letter of the Ministry of education "On preventing illegal money collections" parents (legal representatives) of students may individually or together to make donations to educational organizations, including to make charitable contributions, solely on a voluntary basis (from an official letter of the Ministry of education), plus:

"Parents of students (pupils) are not required to Fund activities maintenance and protection of buildings of educational institutions, logistics and equipping of educational process".