Please take a moment to read more about NCLC and review the giving options available to your organization. You or your company's gift is 100% tax-deductible, and will be helping to build leadership in hundreds of college students across the nation.

The NCLC Mission

The National Collegiate Leadership Conference is a student run nonprofit organization that brings together students and leaders from diverse backgrounds to learn leadership skills, cultivate social responsibility, break down leadership barriers, and to adopt leadership as a way of life.

The conference extends beyond the conventional definitions of leadership. It is designed to help students tap into and expand their leadership potential, helping them grow personally and professionally.

About the Conference

NCLC is dedicated to connecting, challenging, and supporting college and university students in community work, activism, leadership, and civic growth. The annual conference spans 3 days and features:

- ★ Over 60 workshops
- ★ Dinner with a nationally recognized keynote speaker
- ★ Community service projects
- ★ Motivational speakers
- ★ Teambuilding activities
- ★ Leadership certification
- ★ Excellence in Leadership awards
- ★ Entertainment and much more!

The conference offers students the opportunity to network, engage in open forum discussions, and address contemporary issues affecting their campus, the community, and the nation.
