Cavell has been involved in various ministries in Thailand since 1977. She has taught missionary kids, instructed Thai students at English-as-a-Second Language programs, written Sunday school curriculum and trained teachers in the use of this curriculum, she has taught and continues to be a part of the administration at Thailand Pentecostal Bible College. In her role of National facilitator for the PAOC(Thailand division), she also serves the Full Gospel Assemblies of Thailand as an advisor to the Church Planting and Leadership Development Committees, Women's Ministries, Christian Education,, Agape and Abundant Love/Blessing Children's Homes and various Boards of Education, as well as helping with developing and training Thai missionaries. She is blessed with three grandchildren, Anda and Andrew (Jip) and Runn (Benz). Please pray for the family as they learn to deal with the sudden death of Benz this July 2015 and Cavell's return to work in Bangkok.
