THE WHITT'S
Ruth and Irving

Irving Whitt began his missionary career in Kenya, East Africa in 1970 when, along with his wife Ruth, he participated in leadership training for a growing national church. He taught at a ministerial training college preparing young men and women for service in a denomination numbering over 300,000 adherents at that time, and served in Kenya for 8 years.

After completing graduate studies in 1984 he inaugurated a mission major at Eastern Pentecostal Bible College in Peterborough, Ontario, where he chaired the department for 7 years. In 1990 he joined the faculty of Tyndale Seminary (Toronto, Canada) where he filled the role of Director of Intercultural Studies until 2000. (Irving holds both a masters and doctoral degree in the area of missions).

In May of 2000 he assumed the role of Missions Educations Coordinator with the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada, giving oversight to 30 theological institutions globally. After serving in that position for 5 years he was invited as Pastor of Global Outreach at the Peoples Church in Toronto, Canada in January 2006. In October 2008 Irving returned to his former position with the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada, where he assists in the facilitating of training national church leaders in over 40 countries.

Irving is married with two grown daughters Valerie and Rebecca, both born while Irving and Ruth served in Kenya.
