“If you are a student of Deliberate Creation, if you want to consciously create your own reality, if you desire control of your own life experience, if you want to fulfill your reason for being, then your understanding of these prevalent topics—money and the Law of Attraction—will serve you enormously well.” ~ Esther and Jerry Hicks from Money, and the Law of Attraction

CONFESSION: Writing a Note on this book is nearly impossible. Why? Cuz my whole book is basically one long underline with asterisks flying off every page! (Alas, I've pulled out some of my favorite Big Ideas but know that I've *barely* scratched the surface of this awesome book. Me thinks you should get it. :)

And, now back to the show: Esther and Jerry Hicks are quickly becoming two of my absolute favorite teachers. As I mention in my Note on Ask and It Is Given, the idea of channeling Non-Physical beings kinda freaked me out at first. (Still opening my mind from my Catholic upbringing. :) At this stage, I'm much more open to the idea and, to be honest, I don't care where they get this wisdom because it's AMAZING. Truly remarkable.

With so much to cover, let's jump in!

Shortage of Connection

“Shortage of time is not your problem. Shortage of money is not your problem. Shortage of Connection to the Energy that creates worlds is at the heart of all sensations of shortage that you are experiencing.”

Wow. Well, that puts it in perspective, eh? Are you feeling a shortage in your life right now? Know, as Abraham-Hicks so beautifully says, it's your Shortage of Connection to the Energy that creates worlds (!!!) that's at the root of your problem.

Think about that. “The Energy that creates worlds.” It's the same force that beats your heart and grows your hair and digests your food (AND gives you flashes of inspiration of your ideal life!) that also continues to create stars and galaxies and who knows what else at the edges of our universe.

Now, I personally don't like to argue or fight with that force. It wins *every* time. :)

So, the real issue at the heart of any fear/suffering/lack you may be experiencing has NOTHING to do with a bad economy or a bad childhood or a bad hair day. It ALL has to do with you. And, specifically, with your connection to your Highest Self/Source/God/
