

Latino Immigrants in the Windy City: New Trends in Civic Engagement

Thursday, May 20, 2010 - 6:00pm

SSA Building, 969 E 60th Street, Room EI

Panelists will discuss ideas presented in Latino Immigrants in the Windy City: New Trends in Civic Engagement, published by the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in 2010 as the sixth in a series on Latino immigrant civic engagement. Edited by Xóchitl Bada, Oscar Chacón and Jonathan Fox, the book features academic perspectives on immigrant engagement in Chicago, including discussions of historical antecedents, the role of Mexican hometown associations, and transnational perspectives on migrant civic and political engagement. For more information or to order the book: www.w.wilsoncenter.org/migrantparticipation

Featuring:

Xóchitl Bada, University of Illinois-Chicago

Oscar Chacón, Natl. Assoc. of Latin American & Caribbean Communities

Jesus Garcia, Democratic Candidate, Cook County Board of Commissioners

Jose Luis Gutierrez, Federación de Michoacanos de Illinois/NALACC

Susan Gzesh, Human Rights Program, University of Chicago

Rebecca Vonderlack-Navarro, SSA, University of Chicago

University of Chicago Human Rights Program

