Lecture - “Reflecting on Photography and Human Rights”

Susan Meiselas
Magnum Photographer

Susan Meiselas is an internationally recognized and award-winning Magnum Photographer. Tonight, she will draw upon her decades of experience documenting human rights issues across the globe, which include the Central American conflicts of the 1970s and 1980s, collective memory in Kurdistan, and indigenous people in Indonesia. Meiselas is currently president of the Magnum Foundation, which has recently supported a photographic project on the South Side of Chicago.

Q&A Session

*All are invited to join us for a reception immediately following the program in the lobby and courtyard of International House. This lecture and reception are sponsored by The Robert H. Kirschner, MD, Memorial Fund. The event is also co-sponsored by the International House Global Voices Program. Special thanks to Paul Seeley of the University of Chicago Alumni Relations and Development.

This annual lecture series honors the life and work of Robert H. Kirschner, MD, 1940-2002, a noted forensic pathologist and a founder of The University of Chicago Human Rights Program.
